

GLAMOUR TO KILL “CREATURES WITHOUT SOUL”

After a three-year break, Glamour To Kill comes back with a new album recorded in Berlin, the city that saw them become one of today's underground sensations.

With this new album they go back to their raw energetic roots, while staying up to date with their sound and maintaining their impudent coolness.

The album is released in Germany by Pale Music International (Berlin) and will be presented to the public for the very first time as an official part of "España: Nuevas Culturas Urbanas Berlin 2010", an event organized by the Culture Ministry of the Spanish Embassy in Berlin which will focus on the variety of emerging contemporary urban art.

"Creatures without soul" record release party will be held at 3 Schwestern Café & Restaurant (Bethanien-Kreuzberg) on the 16th of July.

On this album, Glamour To Kill is embracing the essence and sounds of Berlin, songs in different languages (English, French, Spanish) about urban decadence, dirty love stories and overwhelming passion, songs that celebrate life and nights without looking back. The dark sound of Antonio Culebras's voice is an extension of the bass, the signature guitar of Luis Miguélez fuels the fire of the punk riot while Juan Tormento's noisy harmonies lift you up to cloud nine.
